

Our Lady of Calvary Retreat Center presents:

OUR JOURNEY... IN PURSUIT OF GOD

Saturday, May 22, 2010

9:00 A.M.—1:00 P.M. (INCLUDES LUNCH)

Presenters: Sheri Dursin and Ann Mariano

When Jesus called the disciples, Simon and Andrew, they “dropped their nets” at once and followed Him (Matthew 4:19-20). Why not plan to spend a few hours reflecting on how Jesus might be calling you to drop your nets and follow Him? This Saturday retreat explores the idea of a personal calling by posing the question “What is my purpose in life?” Join us as you are taken down a path of “embracing the moment,” as you look for ways in which your purpose unfolds in your everyday life. Presentations, scripture, sharing, quiet reflection, and music will guide us as we strive to walk closer with God on Our Journey.

Sheri Dursin and Ann Mariano are active members of St. John Fisher parish in Marlborough, CT. They have been offering retreat programs for parish communities since 2007. Sheri is a member of the OLC staff, a CCD teacher, and a member of the Children’s Liturgy Team at St. John Fisher. Ann is the Administrative Assistant to Sister Helen Dowd, Executive Director of the Intensive Education Academy in West Hartford, Connecticut. She is also an OLC promoter.
